SPEECH ON LAL BAHADUR SHASTRI JI

Good afternoon and welcome everyone.

Today I Vidya Kumari of class 8thD going to give a speech about our second Prime Minister in India, Sri Lal Bahadur Shastri.

He was born on 2nd October 1904 in Uttar Pradesh in India. His father was Sharda Prasad, a school teacher; his mother was Ramdulari Devi. Lal Bahadur Shastri was interested in helping in the Indian freedom movement. He was influenced by the speech given by Mahatma Gandhi at Banaras Hindu University.

He became a true admirer of Mahatma Gandhi and joined the freedom movement because of that. He always believed that self-sustenance and self-reliance are the two supports that help to make a nation strong.

After India got independent in 1947, he got the post of transport and Home minister. In 1952, he became a Railway minister.

He got the post of the Prime Minister after the sudden death of Jawaharlal Nehru. He remained a Prime Minister for only eighteen months. He was a great man and a very good leader. He was given the title of "Shastri" meaning a great scholar. He was rewarded the Bharat Ratna. His famous slogan is "Jai Jawan Jai Kisan". He was also against the dowry system that is why he did not take any dowry from his own father in law.

Lal Bahadur Shastri was also against the caste system which was prevailing. He had immense strong values like patience, courtesy, control within himself and selfless nature.

He was keenly interested in the foreign theories of Marx, Russell and Lenin and he read about them. In 1921, he was arrested during the non-cooperation movement because he was found demonstrating defiance against the order of prohibitory, but he was released shortly after that.

He became a local unit secretary of Congress Party and Allahabad Congress Committee's president in 1930. He also helped during the "Salt Satyagraha" conducted by Mahatma Gandhi.

Lal Bahadur Shastri was awarded the auspicious Bharat Ratna in 1966, posthumously. He died after signing the Tashkent Pact with Pakistan. He died on 11th January 1966 of a heart attack. He was a Prime Minister in India.

Thank You.
